

Kazakhstani Teacher of the Month

Regional English Language Office Astana

The Regional English Language Office (RELO) in Kazakhstan seeks nominations to recognize outstanding English language educators for the 2012-2013 academic year. Nominees will be honored on the RELO homepage and at the 2013 Kazakh Teachers of English Association (KazTEA) conference.

Eligibility

- Any classroom teacher of English as a foreign language at the primary, secondary, or tertiary level who works in the Republic of Kazakhstan

Criteria

- Demonstration of commitment to excellence in teaching, professional growth, and collaboration with fellow educators
- Leadership service to the profession and community
- Innovation, enthusiasm, creativity, inspiration, and compassion as a teacher

Application Process

Please complete the nomination form on the following page and submit to RELO-Astana@state.gov.

Once nominees are selected, they will be solicited to provide a biography, CV, picture, and lesson plan to share with the community. Final selections will be announced on the last day of each month.

Nomination Deadline

Nominations must be received by the 15th of each month. Late nominations will be considered for the following month.

Recognition of Teacher of the Month

Award recipients will receive a certificate of recognition, teaching books for his/her professional library, and a complimentary one-year membership to KazTEA.

The recipient, his/her biography and picture, and lesson plan will be featured on RELO Astana's Facebook Page, the US Embassy Astana RELO website, and KazTEA's website.

Kazakhstani Teachers of the Month will be recognized at the annual KazTEA conference and considered for the 2012-2013 Kazakhstani Teacher of the Year Award.

*If you would like an editable version of the nomination form, please email RELO-Astana@state.gov.

Like us on Facebook! www.Facebook.com/ReloCentralAsia

Regional English Language Office Central Asia

Nominator Information

Thank you for nominating a teacher to be honored as Kazakhstani Teacher of the Month! Please email the completed nomination form to RELO-Astana@state.gov.